

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Stored at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 26, 1883.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

An enormous stock of Hamburgs at W. T. Rynan's.

We are under obligations to Col. R. W. Scott for recent Florida papers.

A thin skin of ice formed in this locality Monday night, but those who profess to know say the fruit was not killed.

Fresh bread and cakes every morning at S. Fuhs', St. Clair street.

Mr. Oscar Blakemore, of this county, sold last week, to Gen. Thos. A. Harris, a full blooded Alderney cow and calf for $100. He also sold at the same time a pure blood Alderney cow to Mr. Cozine, of Lawrenceburg, for $75.

Mr. Will Roberts, breakman for the L. & N. Railroad in this city, while coupling cars at Bagdad Sunday, had his right forearm caught and badly mangled between the draw heads. Fortunately his injuries were not sufficient to make amputation necessary, and it is hoped he will soon be all right again.

Boy, what ails the horse? It needs Kendall's Spavin Cure. See their advertisement.

The Fannie Freese came up Sunday with the heaviest cargo brought up by any boat in a long time. She was loaded so heavily that her guards dragged the water, and she was compelled to leave 250 barrels of lime at Louisville. Competition is the life of trade but the people are standing by the Freese and throwing the bulk of freight to her. The Mail Line will have two boats in the river and are fighting her hard.

Messrs Whitesides & McEwan shipped the first of the week a set of furniture to a party living in Leslie county. When a man passes through Richmond and Lexington and comes to this city to buy goods it's a pretty good sign that our merchants are selling at the lowest notch. And yet there are people living in this city who will send to Louisville and Cincinnati for goods rather than patronize our home merchants.

How to invest a dollar and make five: Buy a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. See advt.

The heavy rain of Sunday brought up the river again Monday morning. A number of rafts of saw-logs belonging to parties from the Mountains, who had not succeeded in selling them, which were insecurely tied up to the bank near the Big Eddy, broke loose and came down stream about eleven o'clock, and created quite an excitement among the mill men. Efforts were made to land them all, but one was jammed into the drift pile at the Wooden Bridge and several went over the dam at the lock. The balance were secured.

One of the best things we have seen lately is the perfection foot cleaner. It is a scraper with two heavy brushes arranged behind it in such a manner that in drawing the sole of the boot over the scraper the foot passes between the brushes, which are forced against the sides of the foot by springs and clean all the dirt from the upper of the boot at the same time the mud is scraped from the sole. It is a good thing and everybody who has to sweep up after a lot of boys in muddy weather will be grateful to the inventor, Whitesides & McEwan have it for sale.

At a colored festival, just over the county line, near Alton, Anderson county, Saturday night, a difficulty arose between a man by the name Charley Brown, who lived in Anderson, and an employee at the Kentucky Military Institute, named Jerry Emerson, in which the former was shot and killed by the latter. The ball taking effect in Brown's head, just back of the temple, and passing clear through the skull. The trouble grew out of Brown insulting a colored belle, to whose affections Emerson laid claim. Emerson invited Brown outside the house to settle the matter, when the latter's sister interfered to prevent him from going, threw her arms around him and was holding him when Emerson fired the fatal shot.

Get Berberich to make your spring suit. His fits are the best.

Anderson county had two murders this week and Mercer one.

Mattie Baker, Louisville, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has given me complete relief from dyspepsia and general depression."

The Perfection Boot Cleaner is cheaper and better than a door mat. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan

The morning passenger train up yesterday morning ran over and killed two cows near North Benson Station.

At dinner time Wednesday all the waiters at the Capital Hotel struck. Their places were immediately supplied with others.

Hon. J. W. Lilly, member of the last two Legislatures from Gallatin county, has removed to Minnesota and been elected a magistrate at Crookstown in that State, where he has located.

Mr. Sam Pardee, of this city, and Miss Annie Quire, of Belle Point, were married Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Louis A. Moore, in the latter place, Elder George Darsie officiating.

Capt. John Sproule, father of Mrs. Judge Thos. H. Hines, is lying at the point of death at his home in Woodbury, Warren county. Judge Hines and family were summoned to his bed side the first of the week.

FOR SALE—Twine Binding Harvester. I have for sale a Walter A. Wood twine binding harvester. Reason for selling, I need money and have no wheat to cut this year. Address box 2, Jett, Franklin county, Ky.

The Perfection Boot Cleaner combines both door mat and foot scraper. One movement of the foot over the scraper and between the brushes cleans the mud and dirt from the sides and sole of the boot. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan.

A new turnpike is to be built in this county, from the Leestown pike to Ducker Station. The distance is only a mile, and the work is to be put under contract at once. Mr. E. W. Ayres, president, advertises in another column of this paper for sealed proposals to construct the work.

Miss Sallie Cannon, eldest daughter of the late Capt. John W. Cannon, and Mr. John P. Starks, of the firm of Crutcher & Starks, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, Thursday evening, by Elder George Darsie. They left on the 10:10 p. m. train for their future home in Lexington.

Messrs. J. E. Miles & Son have taken out all the machinery of their mill and are putting in an entirely new outfit and will hereafter use the roll process altogether. When the repairs are completed the City Mills will be one of the best appointed establishments in the country. The chilled steel rolls have been substituted for the old fashioned mill stones.

The sixty-fourth anniversary of the institution of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in this country was celebrated in this city Thursday night by Capital Lodge, No. 6. The membership assembled at their hall, in the Temple, on St. Clair street, at 7 o'clock, and proceeded to the Baptist Church, where an interesting lecture, giving a history of the institution, rice, and progress of the Order, was delivered by A. M. Ransom, Esq., Grand Lecturer for the State.

Parrish and wife, Mr. George Dunlap and wife, Miss Siella Williams, Mr. Joe Williams, and Mr. George Nuckols, of Midway, Mrs. Bettie Rhodes and Miss Eugenia Starks, of Mercer county, and Messrs. Ike Starks and Rom. Payne, of Lexington, came down Thursday afternoon to attend the Starks-Cannon wedding.

F. J. Cheuev & Co., proprietors Hall's Catarrh Cure, offer $100 reward for any case of Catarrh that can't be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by Joseph LeCompte, Druggist.

Mr. Taylor Collins, who has been running a meat store on the South Side for the past two years, has concluded that there is no money in it and quit the business for a time at least.

Death of Dr. Crutcher.

Dr. W. L. Crutcher, of this county, who has been spending the winter in Florida, started to return home the first of this week, and had reached Lexington when he became too ill to travel further, and died in that city yesterday at noon. His funeral will take place this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from the Christian Church in this city.

SILKWORKS.—If any of our readers desire to engage in the silk business they should address or call upon Col. C. E. Bowman, Commissioner of Agriculture, Frankfort, Ky., and get some eggs and all needful information in reference to hatching, feeding, and putting them to spinning cocoons.

We are very glad to learn that our old friend, Landon S. Coleman, Esq., who has been under treatment at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum for two or three years past, is steadily improving, and the physicians in charge say that there is great reason to think that he will ultimately recover his mind. This will be a source of gratification to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The recent storms, hurricanes, cyclones or whatever they may be called, which within the last few days have been so destructive to human life and property in Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Georgia, gives some emphasis to a suggestion that we have heard, that Frankfort is near the center of a district embracing about 200 miles north and south and 400 miles east and west, which is more exempt from destructive storms than any part of this continent.

FOR RENT.—A dwelling house, opposite depot. Apply to V. Kallenbrun.

FOR RENT.—Five rooms over Fuhs's confectionery. Apply to V. Kallenbrun.

FOR RENT.—A small house with two rooms. Apply to Mrs. M. G. Jeffers.

The steamer City of Frankfort will leave this city to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock, offering an opportunity for all those who desire to attend the Dramatic Festival at Cincinnati to take a pleasant and cheap trip. The fare for the round trip will only be three dollars.

Mr. Stonewall J. Glenn, of Leesburg, Harrison county, died at Eminence College Thursday, of pneumonia. The remains, in charge of President Gilman and a committee of schoolmates of the deceased, passed through this city yesterday en route for Leesburg, where the funeral took place.

A difficulty occurred yesterday morning at Burgin Station, on the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, between Hon. Phil. B. Thompson, jr., Congressman from the Eighth District, and Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, in which the latter was shot and killed by the former. There was a woman in the case.

The City Council, on Thursday night, adopted the plans of Mr. Oscar Cobb, of Chicago, for the new opera house. The old front is to be made use of, but considerably improved with balcony added, and the hall is to have a seating capacity of 900, with parquette, dress circle and gallery. The whole is to cost about twenty thousand dollars.

Tom McKee, who has already served one term in the Penitentiary for horse stealing, and who was wanted in Louisville on suspicion of having committed a second offense recently in that city, was captured at the house of his sister, in this city Tuesday night, by Officer Conway. He was taken to Louisville Wednesday morning, but the parties who lost the horse failed to identify him, and he was turned loose.

Mr. Edmund Power, who fell from the roof of a church in Danville last week, was brought home Wednesday morning. He is considerably mangled up, his left wrist being broken and his left leg so badly bruised that he cannot walk upon it, but he hopes soon to be about again. Had he fallen a little further out from the side of the church he would have alighted on the top of a picket fence and undoubtedly been killed.

Rhoda, the Herodian mystery, which has been on exhibition here for the past week, closed up business Thursday and left for Lexington yesterday morning. It is a well executed mechanical trick, and would deceive most anyone. While the young lady, who represents Rhoda during show hours, is apparently a head without a body, she is at other times a remarkably healthy looking individual of one hundred and sixty pounds weight. The show was well worth the price of admission.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

"Rough on Rats."

Clears out mice, rats, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers, etc. Druggists.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, April 23d, 1883
Editor Roundabout:

Will you allow an old pedagogue to give his views to your readers, in regard to the school law? Having had the honor of being a delegate in the late Educational Convention, from this county, I know that my views will differ with a great many with whom I had the honor to associate in that memorable body, but as we must discuss the question, I shall give my views by merely saying that they have been formed after ten years' experience in public schools of Kentucky.

I believe that all agree that our greatest need is money. Now I think that we can save some of our money by making some changes in the system. First, abolish the school commissioner's office, and save there by from $30,000 to $36,000 per year. The school commissioner is the greatest nuisance the system has to carry. There are 117 commissioners in the State, and I venture the assertion that there are not 17 of that number that do their duty under the law. In conversation with some of them, they said they were not paid enough to enable them to devote more of their time to the duties of the office. Poor fellows! did they not know that my pay was before they entered on their duties, and while they were electing one so strongly for the position? If the common schools have gone this far carrying these drones, would it not be a good idea to drive them out of the State? I will admit that there are some, but their name is not legion, who try to do their duty. I am in favor of making the county judge ex officio school commissioner, so far as visiting the schools is concerned. It never did the schools any good so far as my experience goes.

Now as to another change, and that is in regard to the school year. I believe that it would be best to extend it from 29 to 30 weeks. My observation has been that very few children attend the county schools after they have passed their 16th year, and when they do, it is in such an irregular way that it is no benefit to them. Now if parents knew that after their children had past their 16th year they would be deprived from attending school, it might stimulate them to keep them in the school room more than they now do.

The third change is in the school year. Let the school year begin with the calendar year. This is so apparent as to need no further comment.

Fourth, curtail the expenses in the printing of the documents in the Superintendent's office. Anyone who will take the trouble to examine the last five or six reports will be bound to acknowledge that a forty or fifty page pamphlet would contain all the information that is necessary. The balance is hashed and rehashed until it swells to a volume of 250 or 300 pages. The last Legislature made no changes in the school law of any importance, and yet thousands of copies had to be republished and distributed, and yet not one trustee in our hundred knows anything about the school law, except what they learn from the teacher.

Fifth, make each school district supplement the State per capita before it is allowed to draw a cent from the State funds. This would be the best compulsory law that could be passed.

Benson.

Benson went all right at the late primary.

Born.—To the wife of Mr. Frank Hulet, April 15th, a son—Leslie Polk.

Benson, at her rise on the 6th of April, cleaned everything out along the banks, several parties losing sleep, bags, etc.

Just as the farmers were getting a fair start at their work, the rain descended and the floods came on the 22d, and stopped them a few days longer.

Will the people allow the Railroad Co. to say who shall represent them in the next Legislature? Think of it, ye voters, if railroads are to select our lawmakers why not let them in our sign as freemen?

Miss Lena Sheets, of Frankfort, who has been out here several weeks, visiting, came near being caught by the high waters again and has returned to Frankfort. She says she wants to find a hill to keep her out of the water.

Why did not the committee give the vote for Mr. Julian by precincts. They report him as receiving 1,737 votes out of 2,285 votes cast, now if it said his total vote did not amount to 1,000. Will not some of the committee rise and explain?

There was a raid made on the flinty tribe in Benson creek last Friday and Saturday. The banks were thronged from Benson mills to the mouth of the creek, but old Benson becoming furious over the slaughter of her innocents, rose to a point of order last Sunday evening and the meeting then adjourned sine die.

We had a couple of games of "bat ball" the day of the primary. First round Messrs. Joe Burns and Wm. Morris. They could not catch with their hands worth a cent but did better with their heads. Second round Messrs. James Suttle and Staff Roberts. Staff threw the bat (a stick) instead of the ball (rock) which James caught with his head, his hands being too nervous. He, however, displayed wonderful activity towards the close of the game.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Wm. P. Marshall, of Logansport, Indiana writes: "My wife has for many years been troubled from pain in her back and general debility incident to her sex. She has taken one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and I can truthfully say that she has been so much benefited that she pronounces it the only remedy of many medicines she has tried."

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.
